

Darling Harbour

Cockle Bay Wharf

Darling Harbour captures Sydney's fun side. This lively waterfront precinct is a fusion of attractions, entertainment, restaurants and bars. It has so much to see and do that you won't have any trouble filling the itinerary.

Catch a movie on the giant IMAX screen or peer into the underwater world of Sydney Aquarium. Back on land, Sydney Wildlife World offers the contrast of 6,000 Australian animals. The Australian National Maritime Museum is great fun for kids with interactive exhibits and replica ships to explore.

It's entertainment central at Darling Harbour with the Sydney Entertainment Centre, Convention Centre and Exhibition Centre all within the precinct. Amid the host of attractions, there's free events year round and over 50 places to eat and drink. The waterfront promenades of Cockle Bay Wharf and King Street Wharf bustle with alfresco cafés, bars and some of our favourite restaurants. King Street Wharf is a prime hotspot, packed with sleek dining establishments and bars, including the place to see and be seen; Bungalow 8.

Nearby Chinatown is a great place for a cheap meal, head to Harbourside Shopping Centre for a mix of shops, restaurants and food to go, or try your luck at Star City Casino.

When it's time for a break, take the monorail around the harbour or head to the Chinese Garden of Friendship for a bit of serene green space in the heart of the city.
