

The Rocks

Sydney is made up of distinct precincts fanning out from the focal point of Circular Quay. This hub is surrounded by The Rocks – a historic quarter full of converted warehouses and cobblestone lanes. Within walking distance are the Harbour Bridge and the Sydney Opera House as well as shops, restaurants and pubs.

The city centre is the commercial heart of Sydney. Clusters of modern office towers look down on some of the best shopping arcades, malls and dining venues as well as large parks. Fronting the water is Darling Harbour. At any hour the area buzzes with dining, nightlife, entertainment, family attractions and shopping.

Just south, discover the inner city hubs of Chinatown, Haymarket, Ultimo and Chippendale. These colourful and exciting precincts offer a mix of cuisines, bargain shops, markets and the Central railway station. A little west brings you to alternative Glebe, Camperdown and Newtown, home to artists and Sydney's hip community.

Sydney's inner east centres itself between the harbour and Moore Park, with much of the action along Oxford Street. Hotspots include Woollahroomooloo, Potts Point, Kings Cross, Darlinghurst, Paddington and Surry Hills. From waterfront dining to exciting nightlife to fantastic shopping, the inner east will satisfy.

Wherever you choose to stay in Sydney, you'll have easy access to all of the city's top highlights.

The Rocks and Circular Quay

It's where you'll find two of Sydney's biggest icons, but there's more to The Rocks and Circular Quay district than the Sydney Harbour Bridge and Opera House. Great dining, galleries and museums, boutiques and specialty shops are other worthy drawcards.

The Rocks is Sydney's historic old town quarter, bursting with a colourful history dating back to convict days. It's a maze of sandstone lanes and courtyards, early 19th century warehouses and terraces just waiting to be explored. Nearby Circular Quay is the doorway to Sydney Harbour and all that comes with it. The Quay is a bustling place with ferries leaving every few minutes to Manly, Watson's Bay, Mosman or Taronga Zoo.

Get your fix of shopping at the weekend Rocks Markets or culture at the Museum of Contemporary Art. Walk the harbour foreshore or take a guided walk to learn the secrets of a colourful convict past. Find some of Sydney's oldest pubs like the Fortune of War, Hero of Waterloo, Lord Nelson and the Orient, or discover Sydney's taste for fine dining at Rockpool or Guillaume at Bennelong. Choose to stay in a fully restored Heritage Listed building or live it up in five star luxury.

When the sun starts to go down, you'll be spoilt for choice – climb the Harbour Bridge and watch from above, take to the water on a harbour cruise or take in a show at the Opera House.

Our Favourites

Walk the foreshore from the Harbour Bridge to Circular Quay

Browse the weekend Rocks Market

Have a 'cold one' at one of Sydney's oldest pubs

See a show at the Opera House

Wander around the Museum of Contemporary Art
