

Cairns Esplanade

Our Favourites

Cruise to the Great Barrier Reef and islands

Take the Skyrail or Scenic Railway to Kuranda Village markets

Shop at the Cairns Night Markets and the weekend Mud Markets

Relax at Cairns Esplanade Lagoon

If it's the perfect base to explore the Great Barrier Reef, rainforest and tropical islands you're after, then Cairns is the place to be. This modern city caters so well to holiday makers you'll be hard pressed to narrow down the options of things to see and do. The day tours are a great place to start. Most tours depart or pick up from here, so there's something for everyone. Then there's the restaurants. Take the modern Australian-themed Ochre Restaurant – you'll find it at the Esplanade and can receive 10 per cent off some menu items when you mention your Sunlover Holidays booking number.

If you're in the mood for a little retail therapy before dinner, drop into the Cairns Night Markets, also at the Esplanade. Open nightly from 5pm, there are plenty of souvenirs, home wares and jewellery to choose from. More retail therapy can be found at the Pier Marketplace, the location for the weekend Mud Markets.

The Cairns Esplanade Lagoon is a great spot to hang out between day trips. Overlooking Trinity Inlet, the lagoon is a hive of activity with its swimming pool, children's playground and picnic and barbecue areas.
