

Port Douglas Marina

Join those in the know and head to one of the best Tropical North Queensland destinations, Port Douglas. Just an hour north of Cairns, Port Douglas feels like a world away from it all. The coastal road north is one of the most scenic in Australia, from the deep blue waters of the Coral Sea to its merge with the lush rainforest.

The area is nice and warm in all seasons so it's the perfect getaway from more frosty climates and it's always a good time to take in a reef or rainforest tour.

The local Four Mile Beach is ideal for a barefoot stroll before heading off to take your pick from the multitude of restaurants, cafés and bars along Macrossan Street.

For a holiday full of surprises visit Port Douglas in May when the Port Douglas Carnivale sees the town take on a little Rio vibe with music, exhibitions and parades. Then things liven up again for the Footprints Music Festival, an eco-arts festival, and Portoberfest, the Far Northern Queensland Beer Festival, both in October. It's best to book well in advance for these periods to guarantee yourself a seat at the party table.
